Dear Hiring Manager,

Having held the position, as Joe Sorrentino's Supervisor, at Bose Corporation, Westboro, Mass. from 2005 - 2008, I am pleased for the opportunity to act as a reference for him. It was an absolute delight to work with Joe during those three years.

Joe was originally hired at Bose Corporation, as an Outbound Sales Specialist, for the Direct Marketing Group. What was immediately noticeable was Joe's passion for Bose audio products and technology. He was self-motivated, consistently exceeded his monthly sales goals, and was recognized as one of the department's most dedicated top achievers.

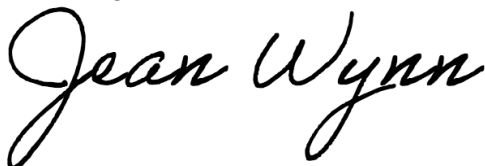

Within his first year, Joe ambitiously cross trained to Inbound Sales and quickly brought his exemplary sales skills to the Transition Team, where he coached and trained Seasonal staff members. Joe's positive attitude and outgoing personality made it easy for new employees to get along and learn from him. His outstanding leadership abilities led him to additional challenges where he also excelled as a go-to leader.

The following year, Bose Corporation held a companywide contest for employees to create a music video, which showcased Bose in new, creative and innovative ways and as a fun place to work. The winner of the contest would have their video shown at an international sales meeting and used to help promote new products and train employees. Joe wrote a script, where he creatively revised the lyrics of a well-known song, "Whip It", by the band Devo, with lyrics pertaining to the Bose contest. Joe videotaped employees singing individual lines, choreographed the whole production and edited the video which resulted in Joe winning the contest.

Joe's clever ingenuity and outstanding work ethic led him to working on additional video editing projects at Bose, where he continued to engage employees, strengthen company morale and promote Bose products while continuing to exceed his monthly sales goals.

Joe Sorrentino has always been a pleasure to work with and I am confident that he would be an excellent addition to any company. He has my highest recommendations for his salesmanship, leadership, teamwork, and audio and video technological acumen. I can be contacted, at any time, to answer any additional questions you may have.

Best regards,
